Temporary siting of a caravan
Why do you consider that a Lawful Development Certificate should be granted for this proposal?
The proposal falls within the definitions stated in the 1960 and 1968 Acts and by any reasonable interpretation is a mobile home, therefore is not operational development.
The caravan will be joined together on site from two distinct parts, each capable of being moved. The resultant caravan is capable of being moved as a whole, both by crane and by trailer.
There is no requirement in legislation or case law for the construction process to take place during a specific time period.
The applicant states that the mobile home will be used ancillary to the main dwelling, this is reinforced by the shared services, the scale of facilities contained within the mobile home and the fact the planning unit will remain as one.
For the reasons explained above and the case law and precedents put forward, it is considered the correct application of planning law should result in the granting of a Certificate of Lawfulness for a Proposed Use of land.
Site Visit
Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land?
○ Yes ② No
If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact?

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.
For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.
